

THE WARTBURG TRUMPET

THE OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF WARTBURG COLLEGE

Editor-in-Chief: Richard Bremer
 Associate Editor: Hildegard Bremer
 Artistic Advisor: Edward Wagner
 Annual Editors: Emil Rehking, Arthur Nicker

BUSINESS STAFF

Business Manager: Eugene Klein
 Advertising Manager: Edward Wagner
 Circulation Manager: Violette Klein, Elmer Klauder
 Assistants:
 News Editor: Arthur Gruenbaum and Walter Fredrick
 Sports Editors: Arthur Gruenbaum and Walter Fredrick

TEMPORARILY APPOINTED

REPORTERS: Arthur Gruenbaum and Clifton Wurck
 Rosalie Neupauer and Edie Schmid
 Artie Wurck and Bert Pohlman

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: $140 PER YEAR

PUBLISHED BIWEEKLY BY WARTBURG COLLEGE YEAR
 Entered as second-class matter October 15, 1934, at the post office
 Waverly, Iowa, under the Act of March 3, 1934.

THE TRUMPET IS WIDELY READ

The article on the Church and State in the "Trumpet" of Feb. 16 has received widespread publicity. It was printed in the "bulletin" of the National Lutheran Council, in "The Bond," (the national organ of Lutheran Brotherhoods) and in "The Friend," a popular magazine, edited by the well-known Pastor N. N. Renning of the Norwegian Lutheran Church.

We can be certain that it pleases every one of us who is interested in Wartburg college to know that what is printed in our school paper is not kept within our own circles but that it is reaching the minds and thoughts of people in all corners of the globe.

Therefore as a student body we are faced with a challenge: the better our school paper, the more thoroughly will we be able to accomplish the duty of it.

OLD AND NEW ACQUAINTANCES

The days are racing so speedily that before we are aware of it most of us, as students, will be finding ourselves at our respective homes enjoying the vacation so eagerly looked forward to.

It matters little where and how we are intending to spend these summer months— one thing is certain, we are going to come in contact with many persons. Some of these people we already know well with the others we are bound to meet we are yet acquainted.

Yesterdays' blust is the battle to the hilt of the day. It has always needed a steady lip, a courageous heart. There must be no stuttering for the notes must ring out clear and true.

In these days in which we live, days of coldness and indifference to spiritual things, days of laxity in moral standards, and hilarious self-indulgence—in these days, if ever, young men and women of convictions are needed, young people who can give a trumpet call to grasp the standard of the cross and win the fight.

A partial allegiance, and feeble Christianity will never meet a vital appeal. We must have Christian convictions, we must have them with a grasp as Paul did, and not be afraid to utter them.

So wherever we are or whatever we do during the summer months, let us keep in mind that our words and actions will be determined by the extent we have let God's grace enter into our lives.

Convocations

Mr. H. J. McMurtry, Superintendent of the Waverly schools, spoke May 10.

"Education is the preparation for 'right living,'" said Mr. McMurtry, "and I am sure that every one, another, he added, is looking in education for the principle of Christian living. The only way I can see is that we live by the motto, 'In Christ we live not only at, for God."

Speaks on Use of Time

The Rev. E. A. Kaelin, Readlyn, Iowa, spoke May 11.

"Students make one of your first college so that you will have no regrets in the future," urged the speaker.

All our efforts should be directed to God, and we should be guided with regard places, curves, deportment and regard health.

"Students should be particularly attracted to avoid later regret and satiety of life."

The Bible Subject of Talk

"The Bible—the source of Power" was the theme of Rev. W. O. Neuman, Allerton, Iowa, who spoke May 14.

"The only way we can, fairly ourselves against all works of darkness, is to stand on the solid ground ourselves in God's Word—the Source of Power."

The speaker urged the young to seek courage and a sense of power.

The Bible must not be an open and used book and not a closed and unused book.

History of Paper Discussed

Mr. Leslie K. Hall, editor of the

Grossmann Boys Hear Strange Noises During Study Hours

Silver Lined Clouds
Do Not Come from Falling Plaster

Residents of Grossmann, Iowa, were startled last Tuesday evening by an avalanche of plaster. No one was injured, but the plaster was a subject for mirth and for regret—Oeps!—and the boys in the occupied house were not amused.

We were sitting peacefully in our room when we heard a noise. It was an unusual sound that demanded attention. We all stopped what we were doing to listen. The noise seemed to have come, owned the room, and then faded away.

From a score of perfect order, the room was suddenly in disorder, confusion and destruction. A sitting room could find the room for the sky. The plaster had come down, and it did its charitable work, and a huge plaster block had come down.

That covered up the window. The "house-pan" lamp was covered up, and the plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

It was a case of "I am," because that was one of the occupants of the room above (Eduard or Klauder). The plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

It was a case of "I am," because that was one of the occupants of the room above (Eduard or Klauder). The plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

It was a case of "I am," because that was one of the occupants of the room above (Eduard or Klauder). The plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

It was a case of "I am," because that was one of the occupants of the room above (Eduard or Klauder). The plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

It was a case of "I am," because that was one of the occupants of the room above (Eduard or Klauder). The plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

It was a case of "I am," because that was one of the occupants of the room above (Eduard or Klauder). The plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

It was a case of "I am," because that was one of the occupants of the room above (Eduard or Klauder). The plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

It was a case of "I am," because that was one of the occupants of the room above (Eduard or Klauder). The plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

It was a case of "I am," because that was one of the occupants of the room above (Eduard or Klauder). The plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

It was a case of "I am," because that was one of the occupants of the room above (Eduard or Klauder). The plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

It was a case of "I am," because that was one of the occupants of the room above (Eduard or Klauder). The plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

It was a case of "I am," because that was one of the occupants of the room above (Eduard or Klauder). The plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

It was a case of "I am," because that was one of the occupants of the room above (Eduard or Klauder). The plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

It was a case of "I am," because that was one of the occupants of the room above (Eduard or Klauder). The plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

It was a case of "I am," because that was one of the occupants of the room above (Eduard or Klauder). The plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

It was a case of "I am," because that was one of the occupants of the room above (Eduard or Klauder). The plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

It was a case of "I am," because that was one of the occupants of the room above (Eduard or Klauder). The plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

It was a case of "I am," because that was one of the occupants of the room above (Eduard or Klauder). The plaster had come down, and the plaster had come down.

Heard in The Girls' Dorm

Who's that knocking at my door?
 It's Irene Black a sophomore.

Five radios each tuned in on a different station.

Outline conversations in the stage.

Alley yelling for "FLORENCE."

Hungry Warhangers waiting loudly on the first floor for dinner.

Three Old Maids—A-sitting on second floor.

Crazy eyebrows "You're gonna lose your Cal."

Symphony from the north country.

Bill Hogow cutting and waving.

Frida Gross, wondering about Christmas test.

Frances frightened by a ghost in the dead of night.

Plaster falling on the steps.

Alma laughing with a squeak.

Bill and Rose doing calculations or something.

Norma and Alice practicing "Vienna-Vienn."

"I'm a Mopin" in the girls' lounge.

Dramatic Group
To Reorganize
Wed., May 20

In a meeting to be held Wednesday, May 20, the Dramatic Club will be reorganized. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the organization of dramatics, types of plays and other activities which will be put on the art stage.

All students who are in any way interested in some dramatics or theatricals are urged to attend this meeting.

For a small price, an annual membership will be given to all members. The Christmas matinee plays and the annual class plays will be on the same price.

With an attractive organization and a good program, the dramatic department can become one of the strongest extra-curricular activities on campus.

The new curtail in the grammar school has been a blessing to the students of the school. These curtains were purchased with the student activity funds made by some of the ladies of St. Paul's Church.

With the new curtains, the students will be able to put up by several numbers of the students.

Alumni—Please send in your news notes.

Sauerbry & Rubenow

Shell Products

Greasing, Access. & Tires

200 W. Brunner St. 65 Waverly

MATT GRUBEN & SONS
Designers and Builders of Memorials

Waverly Iowa

May Graduation

It's one of the big events of your life, and there should be a portrait to mark the occasion — to exchange with classmates.

LAVELL STUDIO

STRENGTH - CHARACTER - SERVICE
 Life Insurance
 Health Insurance
 Accident Insurance
 Consider these factors:
 the reputation of the company,
 the quality of the management,
 and the services rendered.

We invite your inquiries.

LUTHERAN BROTHERHOOD

Legal Reserve Life Insurance
 Herman L. Korn, President
 Minneapolis, Minnesota

Invariably Preferred
 KERWIN'S
 CLOTHING

Liebau Barber Shop
Vogue Permanent
Wave Shop

Offers you Soft Water Shampoo and Fluffy Wave for Eye, Permanent and Heat up.

Open Monday—Appointment
 The Up-to-the-Minute Beauty
 Escape

Phone 46 109 W. Brunner

WAVERLY SAVINGS BANK

STATE BANK OF WAVERLY

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

WAVERLY

IOWA

The Three Waverly Banks

Compliments

from

FORTNER HOTEL

Waverly

